

TAGALOG - Tagalog

Word/Expression in English	In-Language	Back Translation (literal translation)
Census 2000	Census 2000	Census 2000
This is our future. Don't leave it blank.	Ito'y ating kinabukasan. Don't leave it blank.	This is our future. Don't leave it blank.
Strengthen the voice of our community.	Palakasín ang tinig ating komunidad.	Strengthen the voice of our community.
Your answers are confidential by law.	Ayon sa batas, ang mga sagot ninyo ay kumpidensyal.	By law, your answers are confidential.
Census representative	Census representative	Census representative
Fill out the Census 2000 form	Sagutin ang Census 2000 form	Fill out the Census 2000 form
Only aggregate statistical data will be published.	Mga estatistika lamang ang ipalalathala.	Only statistics will be published.
Everyone should fill out the form, whether you're a citizen, green card holder or a non-resident.	Lahat ng nakatira sa Amerika ay dapat sumagot sa Census—mga citizens, green card holders, at non-residents.	Everyone who lives in America should answer the Census—citizens, green card holders and non-residents.
Our answers help decide how and where $185 billion in federal funds will be allocated to improve services in communities like ours.	Ang mga sagot natin ay makatutulong sa pagpapasiya kung paano at kung saan gagamitin ang $185 bilyon mula sa pamahalaang federal na nakalaan para sa pagpapabuti ng mga serbisyo sa mga komunidad na nangangailangan nito.	The answers on the Census form will help decide how and where to use the money from the federal government totaling $185 billion allotted for improving services in communities that need them.
Fill out the form and mail it back.	Sagutin ang form at ibalik ito.	Fill out the form and return it.
Form contains a few basic questions about you and your family.	Ang Census form ay may mga tanong tungkol sa inyo at inyong pamilya.	The Census form contains some questions about you and your family.
It's more than a headcount.	Ito'y higit pa sa headcount.	It's more than a headcount.